

CENESTA

Centre for Sustainable Development & Environment

A not-for-profit institution, CENESTA struggles to achieve endogenous and sustainable sociocultural and ecological development in communities of mobile pastoralists, crop farmers, marine and forest dwellers and other traditional communities. It promotes and supports recognition of their territories of life (ICCAs: Indigenous Peoples' & Community-Conserved Areas & Territories) focused on nature conservation, biocultural diversity, community rights and sustainable livelihoods. Internet links are not accessible in Iran. Website: <https://cenesta.org/en/>
