

South America RISG – IYRP 2026

Report of activities from July to November 2023

By Cecilia Turin

Participation at the First Drylands Summer School

- In July and August 2023, Cecilia coordinated with Fidaa Haddad (Fidaa.Haddad@fao.org) about the participation of a Latin-American representative in the “First Drylands Summer School” organized by FAO, to be held in Jordan in September 2023. After consulting in the group of SA organizations, SA co-chairs identified and nominated Clara Rua from Colombia and Adrian Quero from Mexico to participate in this summer school. Clara Rua is researcher of Agrosavia (Colombia NAR) and works with Gayuu people pastoralist systems of the Alta Guajira, Colombia. She was recognized with a women in science award (<https://www.agrosavia.co/noticias/investigadora-de-agrosavia-gana-el-premio-for-women-in-science-2022>). Adrian Quero is an academic from is a researcher at the Graduate School of Chapingo and works with pastoralist systems of arid zones of Mexico.

Participation at the International Congress on High Andean Llama and Alpaca Livestock

- From 11 to 14 July 2023, Cecilia Turin accepted invitation and participated in the "International Congress on High Andean Llama and Alpaca Livestock in the region of Arica and Parinacota", which took place in the city of Arica, Chile (<http://www.superacionpobreza.cl/congreso-ganaderia-camelida-arica/>). The congress brought together researchers, civil society, government and FAO representatives to discuss the current situation of South American camelids in the Andean region (Peru, Bolivia, Chile and Argentina). Cecilia shared a panel with FAO representatives for IYC 2024. In her presentation titled "Camelid pastoral systems in southern Andean Peru: changes, adaptations and future prospects", Cecilia introduced IYRP 2026 and pointed out as an initiative that recognizes pastoralist's work, including camelid pastoralists (<https://www.dropbox.com/scl/fi/d92a7p0vyge0iqn51czyn/Sistemas-pastoriles-del-sur-andino-peruano-Congreso-Arica-CT-11.07.23-vf.pptx?rlkey=t43fz1if0rcvo7l3xp7ay1hg0&dl=0>). The participation of Cecilia Turin was possible thanks to the support of organizers, Fundación para La Superación de la Pobreza of Chile (<https://www.facebook.com/redganaderoscamelidos/videos/987941772551708>).

Contribution to Pastoralist map

From July to August 2023, Cecilia with other members of PASTORAMERICAS coordinated with Paul Mundy to feed the platform “Pastoralist map”, an initiative led by LPP (<http://www.pastoralpeoples.org/pastoralist-map/>). Cecilia added information of camelid pastoralists and invited other members of RISG to add. In preparation for the IYC 2024, by end of August 2023 Paul Mundy prepared the poster titled “Camelids around the world” (<http://www.pastoralpeoples.org/world-map-of-pastoralists-poster/>). This poster is planned to be included in the dossier “Camelids and Communities”.

Instructions provided by Paul Mundy to feed Pastoralist map

Poster planned to be used in the Camelids and Communities dossier.

Preparation of IYC 2024 dossier

From July through September 2023, Cecilia with Ilse and Sabine from LPP and Ann from Global IYRP 2026 continue reviewing and editing the contributions to the dossier “Camelids and Communities”, organized for IYC 2024.

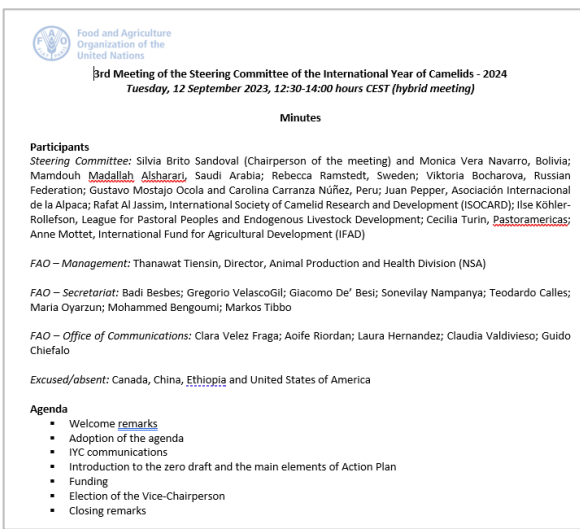

Zoom meeting organized by LPP

Member as IYC 2024 Steering Committee

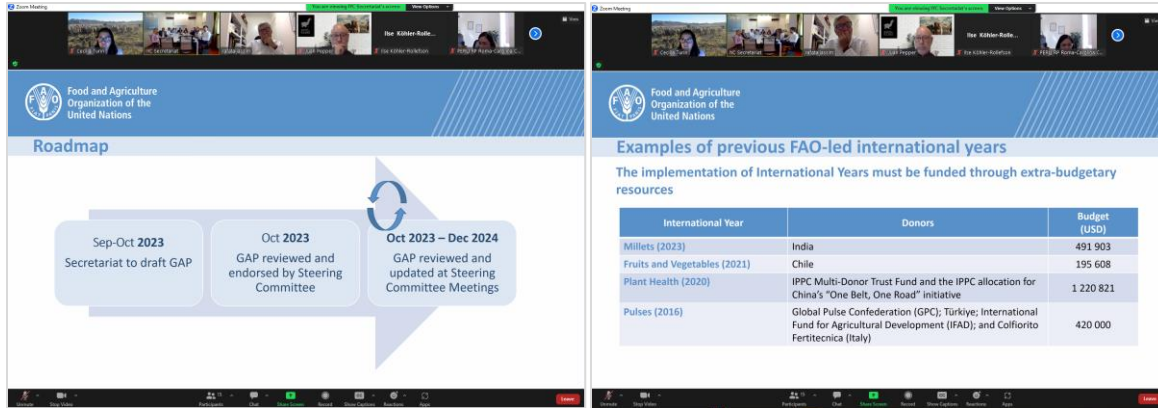

In July 2023, Cecilia Turin become member of the IYC Steering Committee in representation of civil society that promotes camelid pastoralism in the Andean region. The IYC Steering Committee provides guidance on the IYC overall implementation, supports the Secretariat for the mobilization of financial resources; and provides guidance for the selection of the themes for each IYC celebrations. The Steering Committee will consist of representatives and alternates from FAO members, civil society, farmers’ organizations, the private sector, research centers, and other UN agencies. The Steering Committee is expected to meet in hybrid modality on a monthly basis during 2023 and bimonthly basis throughout 2024. Since then, Cecilia has attended SC monthly meetings.

Zoom meeting organized by Secretariat IYC 2024

During last meeting on November 8, the IYC Secretariat announced that official launch for the IYC 2024 was fixed on December 4th during the 174th Session of the FAO Council (4-8 December 2023). Cecilia keeps informed members of PASTORAMERICAS about the actions taken by the SC. Cecilia has been invited by Secretariat to join the launch in person. However, she declined because travel expenses given the short notice is too high.

Lecture on Rangeland Governance at the Summer Field School (Hybrid) on Mountain Ecosystems & Resource Management

On September 14, 2023, Cecilia Turin participated virtually as lecturer in the course “Summer Field School (Hybrid) on Mountain Ecosystems & Resource Management” held from 11-20 September 2023, in the Carpathian Mountains, Hungary (<https://www.grassrootsglobal.net/mer2023/>). She participated in the Theme: Mountain Transhumance, Pastoralism and Rangeland Governance, with the presentation titled “Governance of Rangelands”. This course was oriented to PhD students, research scholars, early career practitioners and young teachers.

Active participation in Working Gender Group – IYRP 2026

Since July 2023, Cecilia Turin as co-chair of SA RISG – IYRP 2026 is participating in the Working Gender Group – IYRP 2026. The WGG is led by Nitya Ghotge and counts on the participation of about 15 people members of the RISG IYRP 2026. Regularly the group has monthly meetings but more frequent in case is needed.

IYRP Pastoralism & Gender Working Group: Minutes of 1-hr Zoom meeting on 26.09.23

Participants

- Ann Waters-Bayer (Agrecol/DITSL/CELEP, Germany)
- Anna Käuber (independent filmmaker, Italy)
- Bhavana Rabari (MARAG, India)
- Cecilia Turin (RISG Latin America co-chair, Peru)
- Hijaba Ykhanbal (JASIL, Mongolia)
- Malit Wako (Centre for Research & Development in Drylands/CRDD, Kenya)
- Maria Turinho (Ganaderas en Red/GER, Spain)
- Mariana Quiroga Mendiola (INTA, Argentina)
- Meenal Tatpathi (Kalpavriksh, India)
- Nitya Ghotge (ANTHRA, India)
- Pedro Herrero (Entrados Spain)
- Victoria Valenzi (NFOD, FAO Rome)

Agenda points

1. Introductions and welcome to new members
2. Participation in GASL 2023
3. Feedback from members
4. Any other matters the group wishes to discuss

1. Introductions and welcome to new members

Meenal Tatpathi was the new member in this meeting. She introduced herself and spoke briefly about her work with Raika pastoralist women in Rajasthan, India. She has a degree in law and is associated with the Kalpavriksh Environment Action Group. The others in the group, in turn, introduced themselves to Meenal.

2. Participation in Global Agenda for Sustainable Livestock (GASL) 2023

Nitya informed the group that she had received word that the IYRP team would be able to present in GASL possibly for 60 minutes, not in the plenary but as a parallel session at the same time as the “share fair” (poster session). Ann asked if there could be presentations online. It was felt that it would be best to have presenters who are physically attending the GASL event. Additionally, recorded/online presentations could perhaps be fitted in. Ann suggested we revert to the GASL subgroup within the IYRP Support Group and check who would be attending and then decide how the programme should be structured. Cecilia and Andiswa will be there, possible also Igshaan Samuel and Nahid from WAMIP (World Alliance of Mobile Indigenous Peoples). Pedro felt it would be good to have some focus on gender and the activities of this Working Group (WG) in the presentation. There should also be attention to youth. There may be a plenary on gender and youth.

Fiona could be a keynote speaker if she will be attending; Pedro and Andiswa could also make inputs. The small planning committee with do more detailed planning.

Minutes of meeting in September.

Pastoralism – Making variability work

Pastoral systems have evolved to function with the natural environment and therefore with variability. Two main points are made in this document: first, pastoral systems are emblematic of farming with nature; second, pastoral systems make use of variability in inputs (the environment) by matching it with variability in their own operational processes (flexibility in movements, animal breeds, labour force, etc.) in such a way as to reduce the variability in outputs (animal production and health, household food security, etc.).
